Public Comment:

New Business:

Undersheriff Jeff Pauli gave an update on several police matters. The City was overcharged $4,940.53 beginning 2nd quarter 2021 for 1 year due to a clerical error which charged us for 84 hours every 2 weeks instead of 80. The overpayment will be credited toward our next invoice. Pauli introduced our new City officer, James Yuchuck, and presented a sample 12 hour shift summer schedule as well as a tentative fall work schedule. He advised that most deputies work the 12 hour shift which provides 84 hours of coverage in 2 weeks.

Moved by Richards to amend the contract with the Monroe County Sheriff Department to reflect the 12 hour shift schedule at the appropriate rate. Supported by Bauer. Roll call vote. Aye (7) Nay (0) Absent (0) Motion carried.

Moved by Richards to renew the Liability and Property Pool coverage with Michigan Municipal League/Meadowbrook. Supported by Bruckner. Aye (7) Nay (0) Absent (0) Motion carried.

Old Business:

Richards reported that the Recreation Commission is looking for a new director and representatives from the City and Township. They will hold a meeting with the school soon.

Mayor reports no update on the water project finalization. Mayor also said the City will be getting estimates for some concrete work soon.

Council Reports:

Cilley reported a resident on Elizabeth Street asked her about the City installing a catch basin in the area of Elizabeth and Center for a home to tile into. Mayor said this will be done soon.

Tollison reported Friends of the Library raffle tickets for Community Day are on sale at the library through Saturday, June 9.

Employee Reports:
