Public Comment:

Stella Kirby, Planning Commission chair, spoke about the PC meeting last week; that they have broken into small groups to go over the existing General Development Plan to begin updating it. Proposals from Carlisle/Wortman and McKenna were reviewed. Kirby asked that the mayor contact Wade Trim and Spicer for proposals to be submitted in the next few weeks. PC continues to brainstorm ideas to bring businesses to the City.

New Business:

Old Business:

Mayor Holeman reported he has met with D&P Communications regarding their rebuilding of the entire City's cable system. They will be meeting again soon to go over blueprints and construction could commence possibly this month.

Mayor and clerk Goodin met last week with a representative from the Census bureau to discuss the timeline for the 2020 Census and the City's role.

Mayor met with Dundee township officials regarding purchasing a small tract of land on Ida West Road for a pump station and per our assessor was advised that we may need to ask for a variance to split the property due to frontage issues. Mayor will contact Dundee township supervisor and assessor again.

Council Reports:

Cilley is still trying to reach someone regarding the disposal of a trailer load of trash on Center Street. Cilley also advised everyone to be vigilant and aware of their surroundings as her daughter was the victim of an abduction attempt in Adrian last week during the day.

Employee Reports:

Clerk Goodin reminded council that the next meeting will be on Tuesday, February 19 due to Presidents' Day.

Moved by Bruckner that Council adjourn at 7:51 p.m. Supported by Tollison. Aye (6) Nay (0) Absent (1) Motion carried.
