Public Comment:

Stella Kirby reported that the informal public gathering to brainstorm how to bring more businesses to town was well attended and she has a list of ideas and resources to investigate.

New Business:

Summerfield Schools superintendent Scott Salow spoke about keeping the liaison officer position as is for now, with the possibility of the deputy getting away periodically during the day to patrol the city. There is a possibility of grants to schools for liaison officers coming out in March or April. Salow will attend the February 22 council meeting along with Sheriff Goodnough to further discuss options.
